Tour Programme

(B – breakfast, L – lunch, D – dinner)

			Overnight
Sat 25 April	Naples	L	NAPLES
	We begin the tour in Naples with a light lunch, followed by an introductory tour walking through the Historic Centre in the afternoon.
Sun 26 April	Campi Flegrei, Cumae	B L	NAPLES
	The morning is spent exploring the other-worldly landscapes of the Phlegraean Fields, including inside a still seething volcanic crater! We then take you to Cumae after lunch, the most ancient Greek settlement on the Italian peninsula.
Mon 27 April	Certosa di San Martino	B L	NAPLES
	Our focus returns to Naples with a visit to the monastery complex of San Martino to see its sumptuous Baroque church and the extraordinary collection of nativity scenes. The afternoon is left at your leisure with unlimited free travel on local public transport.
Tue 28 April	Pompeii	B L	SORRENTO
	This morning is dedicated to Pompeii, possibly the most famous ancient Roman town second only to Rome itself. After this is lunch in the tiny seaside town of Vico Equense before we transfer to Sorrento.
Wed 29 April	(Day at leisure)	B	SORRENTO
	The day is left free to let you to savour Sorrento the way it should be done – without a schedule to limit your enjoyment of arguably Europe's most famous seaside resort.
Thu 30 April	Capri	B L	CAPRI
	Today we transfer to the legendary island of Capri, holiday playground of the rich and famous from Roman emperors to Hollywood stars, and it will be very easy to see why this is so.
Fri 1 May	Villa San Michele	B D	CAPRI
	This morning we take a short walk from our hotel to visit Villa San Michele, the former home of Swedish doctor and author Axel Munthe, where you can enjoy some of the most dramatic panoramas of Capri. The afternoon is at your leisure, so if the weather allows perhaps you might like to take a chairlift all the way up to the top of Monte Salaro?
Sat 2 May	Positano, Amalfi	B L	AMALFI
	We head from Capri to Amalfi by private boat today, passing by Positano and spectacular coastline along the way. Here we shall stay for the next three days, so we have planned a guided walk after lunch to introduce you to this historical and very fascinating town.
Sun 3 May	Day at leisure	B	AMALFI
	This day is left free to let you to relax. Walk the quaint streets, attend mass at the Cathedral, visit the beautiful town of Ravello by bus or just read a book lounging on the beach if you feel like it. The more adventurous can attempt to walk the trails hugging the spectacular coast.

Mon 4 May	Paestum	B D	AMALFI
	Today we take you south of the Amalfi coast to visit a dairy farm to taste the exquisite mozzarella freshly made from buffalo milk. Paestum is scheduled for the afternoon, site of an ancient Greek city with some of the best-preserved Doric temples in Europe.
Tue 5 May	Mount Vesuvius	B L	NAPLES
	We leave Amalfi today to visit the immense crater of Mount Vesuvius, mainland Europe's highest and most active volcano, where on a clear day you can enjoy a magnificent view of the Gulf of Naples. An early lunch is foreseen in a village along the way.
Wed 6 May	Herculaneum	B D	NAPLES
	Herculaneum is the focus of the morning, one of ancient Roman towns buried during the volcanic eruption of Vesuvius in AD79. The afternoon is left at your leisure with unlimited free travel on local public transport.
Thu 7 May	Reggia di Caserta	B D	ROME
	This morning we visit the Royal Palace and Gardens in Caserta, a UNESCO World Heritage Site often used as a setting in movies, before we head for Rome for our final night of the tour.
Fri 8 May
	Transfer will be provided after breakfast this morning from your hotel to the airport.

Note

1. Travel insurance is required for all tour participants.
2. Comfortable walking shoes are strongly recommended as there will be substantial walking on both paved and unpaved ground, sometimes on gravel slopes or extensive steps.
3. Optional walks may be offered during free days without additional charge.
4. While weather in Southern Italy is generally mild at this time of year, participants are advised to take along protective outerwear in case of rain.
