Tour Programme

(B - breakfast, L - lunch, D - dinner)

			Overnight
Sun 28 Apr	(Arrive in Rome, transfer to Todi) We transfer directly to Todi from Rome airport this morning. After a light lunch in a typical restaurant, a guided introductory walk of the town will reveal why Todi was cited back in 1991 as the most liveable town in the world.	L D	TODI
Mon 29 Apr	Orvieto The day is dedicated to Orvieto. Visiting the not just the city with our guide but also the mysterious artificial "caves" first dug into the volcanic rock by the ancient Etruscans and expanded over the centuries by later generations.	B L	TODI
Tue 30 Apr	Bevagna We begin today's excursion with a visit to a local oil mill and producer of top-quality olive oil. A light lunch shall be served along with the tasting of oils. After a brief walk through the medieval town of Bevagna we visit one of the oldest ceramic museums in Europe.	B L	TODI
Wed 1 May	Todi We continue our exploration of Todi this morning with a visit to an 18th century aristocratic residence and other important buildings, after which you are left at leisure to enjoy the town on your own.	B	TODI
Thu 2 May	Via Flaminia, Marmore Falls This morning we go back in time exploring the ancient Roman road Via Flaminia and passing by the ruins of Carsulæ, known as "Pompeii of Umbria", and then follow this with a visit to the famous waterfall of Marmore before taking the scenic route to Norcia.	B L D	NORCIA
Fri 3 May	Norcia, high plains of Castelluccio A very leisurely day is spent on a walk around this lovely town and then a drive around the spectacular high plains of Castelluccio, both badly damaged by the earthquake of 2016.	B L	NORCIA
Sat 4 May	Spoleto, Valnerina We make our way to Assisi today, stopping at Spoleto on the way for a guided walk and lunch, and taking the opportunity to visit the two examples of early Christian architecture in Umbria which now form part of a UNESCO World Heritage Site recalling the Lombards in Italy.	B L D	ASSISI
Sun 5 May	Assisi Today instead of the usual tour of Assisi that is the norm of every other tour, we offer something very different, focusing on the ancient history this fascinating town. Free time is foreseen for those who wish to attend mass at the Basilica of St. Francis in the late afternoon.	B L	ASSISI
Mon 6 May	Perugia We dedicate today to exploring Perugia, with a guided walk around the town in the morning, and a visit after lunch to the delectable chocolate museum of the famous Perugia.	B	ASSISI

Tue 7 May

We shall have some fun this morning participating in a cooking lesson in a farmhouse using ingredients grown on site, with the afternoon spent at leisure back in Assisi.

B L ASSISI

Wed 8 May

We head north this morning to visit the lovely hill town of Gubbio, famous for its Roman ruins as well as the Eugubine Tablets—bronze slabs attesting to its ancient history of well over two thousand years—which are some of the region's most important archeological find.

B D ASSISI

Thu 9 May

We make our way back to Rome today, stopping on the way to visit Civita di Bagnoregio, an ancient but nearly deserted village perched precariously atop a tiny hill. The final dinner will be enjoyed in a family-run Roman trattoria.

B D ROME

Fri 10 May

Transfer will be provided after breakfast this morning from your hotel to Rome airport.

Note

1. Transfer from Rome Fiumicino Airport is provided at 9:30am on Sunday 28 April 2019, timed to the arrival of Singapore Airlines flight SQ366. For arrivals at other times or transfers to and from other locations please contact Ergo: Travel Pte. Ltd. for alternative arrangements.
2. Although the programme is planned to be leisurely, comfortable walking shoes are strongly recommended as there will be substantial walking on both paved and unpaved ground.
3. As spring weather can be unpredictable, participants are advised to carry a small umbrella with them. There will also be visit to places in higher elevations where temperatures can be considerably lower than expected.
4. All participants are encouraged to travel as light as possible for maximum convenience. After all, there will be the need to make space for the many tempting things to buy and bring home!
